

Livestock Sales Policy & Agreement

We're proud to raise healthy, well-socialized animals and want every buyer to feel confident in their purchase. The following policies help us ensure that each animal is placed in a responsible, permanent home.

Reserving an Animal

Animals are listed once they're ready to reserve or leave the farm. If an animal is not yet ready to go home, we're happy to hold it with a non-refundable 20% deposit. All animals must be picked up within one week of the listed pickup date unless prior arrangements have been made. If an animal is not picked up within that time, the deposit will be forfeited, and the animal will be relisted for sale.

Health & Guarantee

We do our very best to raise strong, healthy animals. However, young animals are living creatures and unforeseen things can happen. If a reserved animal becomes ill, injured, or passes away before pickup, you will be contacted immediately and given the choice of either:

- A refund of your deposit, or
- Transfer of your deposit to another available animal.

This is the only situation in which a deposit will be refunded. Once an animal leaves our care, we cannot guarantee its health or wellbeing, as we have no control over its environment, handling, or diet after pickup.

Payment Information

We accept CashApp, Venmo or PayPal for deposits only. Final payment is due in cash at pickup. We do not accept checks of any kind.

Our Right to Refuse Sale

We reserve the right to keep any animal or to cancel a sale at any time if we feel it's in the animal's best interest. Our goal is to place every animal in a safe, loving home where it will receive proper care, nutrition, and attention.

If You Can No Longer Keep Your Animal

We will always take back any animal purchased from us, at any age, for any reason. Please contact us directly to make arrangements. While we're happy to provide a safe return option, no refunds or credits will be issued once an animal has left our farm. Please do not surrender our animals to a shelter.

We reserve the right to refuse sale or cancel any transaction at any point if we feel it is not in the animal's best interest.
